

The Artists Village
91A Hindoo Road
Singapore 209126
admin@tav.org.sg
www.tav.org.sg

26 February 2015

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

/semble/

/semble/ is an interactive art – installation – performance that will take place at the former KTM Tanjong Pagar Railway Station on 7th and 8th March 2015.

Organized by The Artists Village, /semble/ will feature performances and installations of various mediums and tones with an underlying tribute to the nation's 50th year of independence, symbolically on the site of a stretch of land that once upon a time; via train, connected both Singapore and Malaysia.

/semble/ will take place at the main lobby, otherwise once referred to 'that big hall where you bought tickets and waited for your train', a solemn spot that will once again be bustling for different reasons this time round.

Participating artists include Ben Puah, Chand Chandramohan, Ezzam Rahman, Farah Ong, Gilles Massot, Jacquelyn Soo, Jason J S Lee, Kai Lam, Lina Adam, Natasha Wei, Post-Museum, Shin-young Park, Urich Lau as well as guest artist KIDCUCUMBERINC.

This juxtaposition of work would be an apt narrative of the artistic developments and endeavours that have taken place within the Singapore demographic on a site that still stands; unmoved and unchanged.

/semble/ is free entry to the public from 3pm on 7th March and from 12noon on 8th March 2015. Event ends at 8pm on both days.

This event is supported by the National Arts Council and Arts Fund, and administratively partnered with Casual Concepts Communications.

For more details and latest updates, please visit www.tav.org.sg/semble / www.facebook.com/theartistsvillage

For enquiries, please contact Jason:
jason@tav.org.sg